When Carrol Mouse saw a real Troubador fighting a mad bull and really getting away with it, he instantly gets a bright idea and picking up a rag engages Cookie Cat in a "Matadorist" combat. In course of time Carrol almost gets the worst of it but, is saved by a flock of his sisters.

Later in the day Carrol mouse is mortally wounded while playing a brutal game of tennis and is rushed off to the hospital for repairs. On the way his stretcher falls out of the ambulance but, Carrol collects himself and replace everything in the ambulance again.

In the same neighborhood the mice catchers are at work and it seems they are pals of Cookie Cat. In due time they succeed in capturing this little wayward mouse and give him the job of pulling the wagon. As they were crossing a ravine Carrol succeeds in lading the wagon right across the chasm. He then gets an idea and saws the wagon in two dropping his captors to death and destruction. Aesop comments: "Revenge is Sweet"
